Humility

I used to think that God’s gifts were on shelves one above the other, and that the taller we grow in Christian character, the more easily we should reach them. I find now that God’s gifts are on shelves one beneath the other, and that it is not a question of growing taller, but of stooping lower, and that we have to go down, always down, to get his best gifts. -F.B Meyer

1. Two Saturdays to Support and Celebrate Missions. Rosedale International invites you and your family to join us for one or both of the following events this summer: On July 25th, Ride for Missions, offers cyclists of all ages and skill levels an opportunity to raise funds for international missions while pedaling around their local communities with friends. On August 1st, we invite you to join a new event we're calling One for Missions. You can choose to participate by selecting an activity or hobby you enjoy doing and using it to support missions, or by hosting a social gathering focused on celebrating missions and the work of RI. To learn more about these events, go to rosedaleinternational.org
2. The June edition of On the Level is now available from Mennonite Disaster Service. In our current issue, you can read how MDS volunteers helped Hesston College make modifications to campus housing to improve student health and safety. You can learn how MDS innovation and creativity is helping to bring a flood victim home after four years of waiting. Plus MDS shares how it is planning and visioning for an eventual return to projects. Check out this link to read more: <https://conta.cc/2UX1MVZ>

Living with your family

When Anatole France was a boy, he read a book of the saints and was impressed by the story of Simeon Stylites who showed his holiness by living on top of a pillar. Young Anatole decided to imitate the saint. With boyish ingenuity he made a pillar by putting a chair on the kitchen table. Then he began to sit. His mother, however, was not in sympathy with his method of obtaining sainthood. Before it was time for supper, she made him climb down from his perch and pull the chair after him. He said, "I perceive it is a very difficult thing to be a saint while living with your family."

True indeed! It is never easy to be a Christian at home, but this is the acid test of our religion.

-Dudley Caverts in Ours Is the Faith

Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long full life in the land the Lord your God will give you.
